

Avoid being a cliché on Valentine's Day

Take your pick from the Samsonite Valentine selection

Whether you love it or hate it, it's impossible to ignore Valentine's Day. So, why not avoid being a cliché this year? Cook your sweetheart dinner instead of going to a restaurant. Give your loved one a handwritten letter instead of a cheesy Valentine's card or an ordinary text message. And buy a present that he or she can cherish for a long time.

Samsonite has put together a special Valentine range to help you choose wisely – and be different this year. And let's be honest: each time your Valentine uses his or her Samsonite, you will be remembered. And isn't that what gifts are all about? A last tip: cupid-up your gift by personalising it. A little note inside the suitcase will add that extra sparkle!
